

Hina Doll and Koinobori Festival

An Afternoon to Experience African and Japanese Culture

Saturday, April 20, 2013 2pm – 5pm at 13525 Campus Drive, Oakland, 510-969-8275

Join us with your friends and family to enjoy some African food and dance, experience a Japanese Tea Ceremony, and make Origami Craft.

Women's Federation for World Peace, Northern California, is committed to support a K-12 school in Mozambique. The proceeds from this event will help the school purchase two copy machines, which will enable the school to provide learning materials and textbooks to its students.

Tickets:

Prepaid

Adults: $20 ($15 donation included)
 Couples: $35 ($25 donation included)
 Youth (11–17 years): $5
 Child (4–10 years): $3

At the Door

Adults: $25
 Couples: $45
 Youth (11–17 years): $8
 Child (4–10 years): $5

• Silent Auction (2pm–4:30pm)

Featuring PHARMANEX Supplement products, African paintings, folk-art articles, and more.

• Special Refreshments (3:15pm)

• Family Fun! (2pm–4pm)

Tea Ceremony with special Japanese cake.

Origami craft for children (Ohinasama, Koinobori, Kabuto, and more!)

• Viewing of "Dreams" by Akira Kurosawa (3pm)

• African Storytelling and Dance (3:30pm)

• Raffle Prizes (4:30pm)

Organized by:

Women's Federation for World Peace, Schools of Africa Project Committee
 Contact Tomiko Nojima for more info: tomikonojima@gmail.com • (925) 736-3321

